

Francisco Marto (11.6.1908 - 4.4.1919) and Jacinta Marto (11.3.1910 - 20.2.1920) were born in Aljustrel, a village in the parish of Fatima. In the company of their cousin Lucia, they saw an angel three times, and the Virgin Mary six times who urged them to pray and do penance for the remission of sins, and to obtain the conversion of sinners.

From then on they had only one aspiration: to pray and suffer according to the Angel and Our Lady's requests.

In Fatima on 13th May 2000 Pope John Paul II inscribed their names among the Beatified.
